

Record Free Cooking School Opens Tomorrow At Sherman

Sessions
Begin At 9:30 A.M.

For the third year, women of the Monroe county area are going to have an opportunity to take part in the ever-so-popular Daily Record Cooking School.

The first session of a series of four free schools will open at the Sherman Theatre Wednesday morning of this week. Doors will open at 9 a. m. and the school will start promptly at 9:30.

Arrangements are being made to step up the tempo of these morning schools so that everything will have been completed by 11 a. m. which will give the average housewife ample time to get home for the preparation of the family's noon meal.

A new departure will be inaugurated this year. The Daily Record will have two experienced home economists on the stage at all sessions. They are Misses Grace Shankweiler and Katherine Guldin, both from the home service department of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co.

The will both lecture and demonstrate and cook the food right in front of the eyes of the cooking school audience.

As each of these schools has succeeded the previous one, new ideas have been constantly brought into the promotion. Among these has been the economical preparation of meals. With the high cost of foods, particularly the better cuts of meat, the two home economists will stress the use of the lower cost cuts of meat in the preparation of tempting menus for the entire family.

Most important of all will be the informality of the school. The lectures will be more in the nature of carrying on a one-way conversation with the audience as the receptive listener. The use of a public address system with a "micro" will insure that the voices of the lecturers will be heard in all parts of the big theater auditorium.

Present plans call for schools every other Wednesday morning, starting this week and continuing until four school sessions have been held. This will bring the final session the first Wednesday in June. The dates April 25, May 9 and 23 and June 6.

The stage of the theater will be, in effect, a modern hovel of things for the home. Electric cookery will be featured and electric ranges will be used throughout the six schools.

The modern electric home with its range, electric refrigerator, deep freezer, automatic washer, electric hot water heater, and scores of other electric devices without which today's home is not complete, will be on the stage for demonstration purposes at every session. All of these appliances will be furnished for each school by appliance dealers from the area who are cooperating with The Daily Record in this promotion.

Then, too, cooperating in the school will be allied lines such as furniture, drapes, housewares, rugs, dishes, flowers, wallpaper. Even comfort shoes for women will be featured as will house dresses.

Brand name foods will be in the school and from these the lecturer will make wide selection for her demonstrations and lectures.

It should be remembered that this school is entirely free. There is no admission nothing to buy, nothing to pay for. All of the expense of the school is borne by The Daily Record and its long list of participants. Everyone is invited to come. It is suggested, however, that each person bring a pencil, for opportunities will be offered for written suggestions from the audience.

Scores of fine gifts will be given at each school and at the concluding session in June prizes which run into many hundreds of dollars in value will be given away to women who have been faithful in attendance and who have visited the places of the participants in the school. Full explanation of these prizes and how they are to be distributed will be announced at each school. You will be well repaid for your time at The Record Cooking School.

Aly May Come To U. S. To Seek Reconciliation

New York (AP)—New York Post columnist Earl Wilson said yesterday muslim Prince Aly Khan soon may come to America "to try to patch up his differences with Rita Hayworth, which now threaten to lead to a divorce."

Miss Hayworth, Wilson said, continues to insist she hasn't decided upon a divorce or a permanent separation.

But Wilson said over the weekend she retained attorney Bartley Crum "but he cannot ethically discuss whether he is to represent her on problems professional or marital."

The columnist added: "However, it's known that she is at least considering a divorce."

Meanwhile, Miss Hayworth has notified her studio that she's ready to report for work.

Mac Doesn't Know Reason For Ouster

New York (AP)—An aide to Gen. Douglas MacArthur said yesterday the general still does not know why President Truman stripped him of his commands.

"To this day, General MacArthur never has been informed as to the reasons for his summary dismissal and he hasn't the faintest idea why the action was taken," said MacArthur's personal adviser, Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney.

Whitney talked with newsmen at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where the MacArthurs are staying in the lavish presidential suite.

Whitney said his chief's dismissal did not follow military precedent. He reported the general's wife, who had heard of it by radio, broke the news that he had been relieved of his commands 20 minutes before official notification arrived from Washington.

The news of the general's dismissal was announced in Washington at 1 a. m. (EST) to coincide with the 3 p. m. (Tokyo time) hour it was scheduled to reach MacArthur.

In his order to MacArthur dismissing him the President said: "My reasons for your replacement will be made public concurrently with the delivery to you of the foregoing order, and are contained in the next following message."

Blair Moody Appointed To Vandy's Seat

Lansing, Mich. (AP)—A youngish-looking 40-year-old newspaperman who says he belongs to no political party was appointed yesterday to serve the unexpired term of the late Republican Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg.

He is Blair Moody, Washington correspondent of the Detroit News since 1933. He joined the newspaper's staff 10 years earlier.

One of his first acts was to voice unqualified support for the bipartisan foreign policy ideas held by Vandenberg, who died Wednesday.

Moody promptly took the oath of office following appointment by 40-year-old Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and said, in effect, he will run for a full six-year term in 1952.

The new senator expressed general agreement with foreign and domestic policies of President Truman's administration. He said he expects to take his seat Wednesday for the Vandenberg term ending in January, 1953.

If Moody votes along partisan lines, his appointment will give the Democrats a 50-46 majority in the Senate. Until Vandenberg's death last week, they held only a two-vote, 49-47 margin.

GI Dividends Mailed
Washington (AP)—The Veterans administration mailed out yesterday the first checks of a $685,000, 000 special dividend to holders of $8,000,000 GI insurance policies. VA said the checks cover dividends due on some of the national service life insurance policies with anniversary dates falling during January.

Presidential Recall Move Is Proposed

Washington (AP)—The Truman-MacArthur controversy churned up yesterday a Senate proposal to change the Constitution so that future presidents could be voted out of the White House by the people.

Senator Hendrickson (R-NJ) introduced a resolution calling for such a constitutional amendment.

His office said Hendrickson had received thousands of letters and telegrams asking if "something couldn't be done" to remove President Truman from office as a result of his dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

From a leading MacArthur supporter, House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts, came a new demand for the ouster of Secretary of State Acheson and his "powerful clique of fuzzy-minded thinkers, global do-gooders, defeatists and appeasers."

Asserting that "Americans are now laying down their lives in Korea for Acheson's mistake," Martin said in a speech at Worcester, Mass.:

"If we want a strategy that will save Europe and save Asia at the same time, we must clean out the State department from top to bottom. 'Certainly, if we can do without the services of a great American like General MacArthur, we can spare Mr. Acheson.'"

Martin assailed Acheson as "the architect of the great mistake—his incredible belief that the political cancer we know as Communism can be successfully treated by a State department mixture of salve, tea leaves and wampum."

Another demand for Acheson's removal came from Charles C. Ralls, commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"As long as Secretary of State Acheson remains in office," Ralls said, "the sacrifice of our armed forces will produce nothing but bitter controversy, vicious political feuds and the complete destruction of public confidence in the government's ability to protect the nation's security."

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), in a 1½ day Senate speech, accused the administration of attempting to propagandize its side in the policy dispute that underlay MacArthur's dismissal by leaking partial information.

He was referring specifically to secret information which he said had been leaked to the New York Times about President Truman's conference with MacArthur on Wake Island last October.

When only part of the facts are disclosed and when they are given to only one reporter and one newspaper, he said, it is not news but propaganda.

Under the constitution, a president can be removed only after conviction, in impeachment proceedings, on charges of "treason, bribery or other high crimes or misdemeanors."

Hendrickson's proposed amendment provides for a nation-wide vote on recalling a president any time two-thirds of the state legislatures petition for such a vote.

Then, if the vote was in favor of ousting the President, his office would be declared vacant and the vice-president would succeed to the post until the election of a new president. However, there could be no recall during the first year of the president's term. It would not apply to Mr. Truman.

Death Of Governor's Wife Cancels Assembly Session

Harrisburg, (AP)—The General Assembly, saddened by the death of Mrs. John S. Fine, cancelled this week's session last night, as a mark of respect to the Governor and his family.

Controversial issues were put aside until next Monday as Republicans and Democrats joined in expressing sympathy to the Governor and his two sons.

The entire Capitol took on an air of sorrow over the death of the executive's wife from a brain tumor in Philadelphia shortly after midnight.

In a brief session both chambers unanimously adopted a resolution expressing their "immeasurable grief" over the death of Mrs. Fine and extended to the Governor "heartfelt sympathy in his hour of desolation and sorrow."

The resolution was introduced in the Senate by Sen. T. Newell Wood (R-Luzerne), the Governor's home county.

Both House and Senate named a committee to represent those branches at Mrs. Fine's funeral Wednesday at Wilkes-Barre. All State offices will be closed all day Wednesday because of her death. The Governor's office will remain closed until Thursday morning.

The brief legislative session was given over entirely to expressing the assembly's sorrow and naming the funeral committees.

Pushed into the background were the session's many controversial problems, headed by the House-passed State income tax bill, now awaiting Senate action. By agreement issues were put off until next week's session starting Monday.

The 42-year-old Mrs. Fine first entered the hospital February 14. The next day she underwent two brain operations. She returned to Harrisburg March 7 and a month later was back in the hospital for a checkup.

The Governor was present at the hospital during Sunday night's operation and remained at his wife's bedside until the last. A spokesman described the State's chief executive as heavy-hearted with sorrow, but comforted in his loss by the sympathy and prayers of many of his fellow Pennsylvanians and others outside the State.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday at the Harold C. Snowdon funeral home, Wilkes-Barre. Rev. Harold P. Boon, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, Nanticoke, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Burke S. Rivers of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Wilkes-Barre. Burial will be in Oaklawn cemetery.

Mrs. Fine is survived by the Governor, two sons, John, 10, and Donald, eight.

Truman's Cousin Punches Critic

Springfield, Mo., (AP)—President Truman's cousin took a punch at a young insurance salesman who made a remark about the President at a Chamber of Commerce directors meeting yesterday.

The puncher was 70-year-old Ralph Truman, a retired Army major general.

Declaring "you can't talk like that about the President," Truman swung on Larry Eifert in a downtown hotel lobby following the meeting.

Allocations For Rubber Increased

Washington, (AP)—The government announced yesterday a 10 per cent increase in allocations of rubber for many civilian goods in May.

But, passenger car tires, garden hose, athletic goods, toys and a score of other products were excluded from the increase.

The increase will be devoted to truck and bus tires, industrial equipment, tractor tires, factory belting, shoe soles and other more essential items.

The order was announced by the National Production authority (NPA).

NPA's order will lift total civilian rubber usage to the full level of the 1949-50 period. In the first three months of this year, consumption was held to 90 per cent.

However, the new order contains a list of items whose production will not be permitted to exceed the present 90 per cent rate. In effect, this will let other essential civilian goods rise above the 100 per cent mark.

Increased synthetic production and the allocation of a slight additional tonnage of natural rubber made the increase possible.

Armed Forces Issue Call For 1,202 Doctors

Washington (AP)—Twelve hundred doctors will have to be drafted into the Armed forces in July, August and September unless volunteers fill the gap in the next 10 weeks.

The Defense department issued a draft call yesterday for 1,202 priority one doctors. These are medical men who received their scientific education at government expense or were deferred during World War Two to attend medical school, and who have served less than 90 days in the Armed forces.

The requisition will not be necessary, the department said, if enough doctors come in voluntarily to meet the growing needs of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Reds Push Allies Back 15 Miles In Chunchon Thrust

Tokyo, Tuesday (AP)—Chinese Red hordes tore a big hole in United Nations lines today and plunged south of the 38th parallel in central Korea.

A Chinese division with cavalry mounted on Mongolian ponies was reported in the forefront of the massive drive.

Another Red force crossed into South Korea in the west, headed toward Uijongbu on the way to Seoul.

But the big smash—on 100 miles of flaming front in the third day of the Red counter-offensive—was aimed along the mountainous middle.

There a Chinese Red division supported by mounted cavalry scored a breakthrough and drove on toward Chunchon, eight miles south of 38.

Withdrawals ranging up to 15 miles were forced on the hard-pressed United Nations troops on all fronts despite the all-out support of Allied artillery and planes.

Nearly 9,000 Reds were killed or wounded by artillery alone yesterday, the Eighth Army estimated. Swarms of planes claimed an additional toll of nearly 2,000 and perhaps as many as 4,000.

Allied forces in the west-central area gave up Chunchon and pulled back to positions just north of the 38th parallel. Yonchon is six miles north of 38.

Allied commanders said the offensive, mounted by perhaps 700,000 Reds, appeared to be losing its steam on the west flank.

But it was going strong in the center south of Kumsu. These Allied forces had driven 10 miles north of 38th before the Red tide that started Sunday erased the gain and pushed south of the parallel.

Kumsu is 20 miles north of parallel 38.

In the area south of Kumsu, on the central front, strong enemy forces exploited their initial breakthrough and continued to move south in spite of numerous friendly air strikes," said today's mid-morning communique of Eighth Army.

"The enemy force involved in this exploitation was estimated as an enemy division with cavalry elements in the area east-northeast of Yongong."

"Friendly units to the rear of this area have adjusted positions to meet the enemy threat with friendly air and artillery engaging this enemy force throughout the day (Monday)."

Contact was broken with the enemy south of Chhorwon, a Red base 18 miles north of the 38th parallel.

In Central Korea, Allied defenders of the Hwachon reservoir area repulsed Red attacks.

But U. N. defenders had to readjust positions in east-central Korea around Yanggu and Inje under strong Communist pressure.

Allied airmen raked the concentrated Chinese and North Korean forces yesterday, killing an officially estimated 2,000 Reds. Unofficial estimates placed the toll at 4,000.

Navy fliers, some carrying one-ton bombs on their single-engine Skyraiders, killed more than 530 Reds.

Estimates of the attacking Red forces ranged up to 700,000, with 400,000 of them concentrated in the center.

In the west—on the traditional invasion route to Seoul—the Eighth Army said Red pressure at the Imjin river near the 38th parallel began diminishing at 4 p. m. yesterday.

A Red regiment was reported at the river near Munsan, a highway town 27 miles northwest of Seoul. Munsan is 10 miles south of the 38th parallel.

Nearer the parallel, two Red battalions crossed the Imjin east of Korangpo and forced U. N. defenders there to withdraw to new defensive positions.

Miss Truman has Eye To Romance
Hollywood, (AP)—Margaret Truman, here to embark on a new phase of her career—acting—said yesterday that she does not exclude romance from her future.

"But there is nothing in the air, so don't start another rumor," the President's daughter hastily told reporters.

Asked facetiously if her favorite song might perhaps be "Old Soldiers Never Die," Miss Truman laughed heartily and replied: "You'll have to do better than that."

Miss Truman said that she'd "like to do both singing and acting from now on." She is here to appear Thursday in a broadcast of the play "Jackpot" opposite James Stewart.

She "might consider motion pictures" in her future career. She has had offers, she said, but has been too busy with radio and records to take advantage of them.

Charles Dawes Dies At 85; Former Veep

Chicago (AP)—Gen. Charles G. Dawes, 85, former vice president of the United States, died last night of coronary thrombosis.

He died unexpectedly at his apartment in suburban Evanston at 10 p. m. CST.

He had been active up to the very end, and was a member of the committee to greet Gen. Douglas MacArthur at the latter's Chicago reception Thursday.

Dawes, prominent in civic, banking and industrial circles in the nation, was elected vice president under Calvin Coolidge in 1924.

In the following Hoover administration, he was made ambassador to the Court of St. James, where he upset diplomatic tradition by refusing to wear the traditional knee breeches to British court functions.

'Boy Wonder' Resigns From Attlee Cabinet

London (AP)—A second minister took a walk from Prime Minister Attlee's Cabinet last night, joining Aneurin Bevan who charged that Britain was shackled to the "wheels of American diplomacy" in a reckless armaments drive.

The resignation of Board of Trade President Harold Wilson, 35-year-old "boy wonder" of the Labor government, was announced by Attlee, whose thin-edged majority in the House of Commons was further threatened by the internal party fight.

No correspondence between Wilson and Attlee was made public, but the resigning Board of Trade president planned to state his reasons in a later speech in the House of Commons as Bevan did yesterday.

Bevan, the leftwinger who resigned as Labor Minister, charged in an impassioned speech to a glum and largely unresponsive House that the Labor government was letting the United States drag it into an arms program which would plunge Britain into economic chaos and scuttle her socialistic welfare programs.

Belongings Dropped Hastily On Guadalcanal 9 Years Ago Finally Catch Up With Marine

Early in 1942 the war in the Pacific was still young and things looked black for the United States.

The battle raged over a hot, tiny spot in the Pacific called Guadalcanal.

That was nine years ago and fighting there with the Marines was Michael F. Sopko, of Mountaintown.

The line of battle moved swiftly at times and he went with it. He had little time to keep track of all his belongings. He left Guadalcanal after that action or the next island on the long road to Japan.

His personal effects remained behind in a sea bag.

And that was the last he ever heard of them again until just recently.

He received a letter from the supply depot at the Marine's Camp Lejeune, N. C.

A thorough investigation by the commandant of the Marine Corps and this office," it reads, "reveals that you have personal effects at this depot."

The sea bag which ex-leatherneck Michael Sopko had hurriedly left behind in "Guadal" had finally caught up with him . . . nine years later.

Pennsylvania To Sidetrack Incoel Project For Two Years

Special Study From State's View Planned

The Interstate Commission on the Delaware River Basin project to develop the upper reaches of the stream and its watershed as a four-state water project will be sidetracked in Pennsylvania this year in favor of a special two-year study of the river from strictly a Pennsylvania standpoint.

This proposal developed at a special meeting of Pennsylvania members of Incoel yesterday in Harrisburg with Attorney General Robert Woodside and M. F. Draemel, secretary of the Department of Forests and Waters in attendance.

Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe, one of Incoel's Pennsylvania members, said the proposal resulted from a lengthy discussion on a proposal that legislation be introduced in the 1951 session calling for Pennsylvania participation with New York, New Jersey and Delaware to carry out Incoel's project of erecting a series of dams and reservoirs in the upper reaches of the river.

Mr. Crowe said the proposal to enter into an exhaustive study of the river and Incoel's project from the standpoint of Pennsylvania's interests in the stream was approved as "the sound way to approach to river development project."

New York and New Jersey are pressing for four-state legislative enactments approving Incoel's reservoir project because of serious water shortages.

The Monroe senator made it clear that yesterday's action in no way eliminated the possibility that Pennsylvania's legislature will at some future date approve the four-state river development project.

It only means that all of us felt that we should delve carefully in the Delaware River project to list all factors and points pertinent to the interests of our state and its people before we plunge head-long in a four-state pact involve expenditure of many millions and the assignment of water rights of one of the few really great and pure streams in eastern United States," Senator Crowe said.

Attorney General Woodside is expected to draft legislation authorizing creation of a commission to handle the two-year study. Findings of the commission will be submitted two years hence to the legislature as an authoritative guide to whatever legislative action is to be taken, Senator Crowe said.

Others attending the meeting were Weldon B. Heyburn, auditor general; Francis A. Pitkin, chairman of Incoel and director State Planning Board and Rep. Charles C. Smith, GOP majority leader in the House.

Consultant To Outline Master Plan

Tobyhanna — Coolbaugh township supervisors and their recently created Zoning commission will meet Wednesday to discuss preliminaries of a community master plan development with Clifton E. Rodgers, planning consultant.

Supervisors are Irvin C. Foster, chairman; Ralph Neipert and Joseph A. Pope. They will join their planning commission and Mr. Rodgers at a meeting of Tobyhanna Civic league Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Coolbaugh Township school.

The Zoning commission consists of Edwin Bigger, Berne Cramer, John McHale, Harold Kresge and Lawrence Reitz. This unit will act as the clearing out for all proposals submitted by Mr. Rodgers and his staff of planning experts, and file recommendations with supervisors on all matters requiring legislative action.

Mr. Rodgers will outline for the first time to citizens of the township the basic ideas behind the community master plan project.

He will open the meeting to a question and answer period to provide a means for complete understanding of the planning work and its ultimate aim.

Planning project was set up by supervisors on March 31 when they signed a contract retaining Mr. Rodgers and his staff.

Supervisors said they were motivated by their firm belief some sort of master municipal plan is necessary to provide an orderly system of community development which is expected to be caused by location of the $30,000,000 Signal Corps depot on a 1,400-acre tract of the Tobyhanna Military Reservation.

Surveyors are rushing their work on this tract to "spot" sites of the depot buildings including a number of huge warehouses, railroad tracks, administration building, etc.

Accident Brings Together Men With Same Family Name

Stroudsburg borough police were surprised late yesterday when they asked operators of two vehicles involved in a squeeze collision on Main St. in front of the Wyckoff store to identify themselves.

One said his name was Treible; the other said the same.

The Treibles, it developed, had been operating their separate cars in the same direction on Main St. when they sidwiped each other, tied up traffic and caused a considerable amount of confusion as the late afternoon traffic backed up in both directions.

Police said one was H. E. Treible, of 1046 Dreher Ave.; the other was Paul Treible, 34, of Canadensis, a war veteran and amputee who was driving a specially equipped machine. They are not closely related, police said.

Damages, which were limited to the opposite sides of the vehicle bodies, were estimated at $75 to each.

Exchange Club Discusses State Convention Program

With the State Exchange club convention little more than a month away, the East Stroudsburg club last night devoted its entire meeting to the program and last-minute arrangements.

The convention will be held May 31, June 1-2 at Buck Hill Falls.

Both Ralph O. Burrows, chairman of the convention committee, and Club President Henry S. Evans, outlined the duties of the club during the affair.

Theme of the convention will be "Vacation and Fun in '51." Entertainment, including swimming, golf, Little League baseball, a diving exhibition and concert by East Stroudsburg High school band, is planned during the three-day affair.

Chartered tours throughout the Poconos have been arranged for guests; a banquet and ball and barbecue are also planned.

The meeting last night was held in East Stroudsburg Methodist church.

More than 50 million dollars are spent annually in Pennsylvania for funeral services, according to the Census Bureau.

Annual receipts of Pennsylvania automobile repair shops amount to more than $5 million dollars, the Census Bureau reports.

Bangor Moose Install Officers

Bangor — Charles Fetherman was installed as governor of State City Lodge 72, Loyal Order of Moose, here last night during annual installation ceremonies.

Oscar Rice, trustee of State City Lodge, was the installing officer. Others installed were Howard Miller, junior governor; Osborn Rutt, prelate, and John Rinehart, treasurer. A class of 22 new members was accepted, and it was voted to extend the membership drive until May 12.

Joseph Gallagher, of Shamokin, State Moose representative, addressed the new class.

It makes your dollars talk great good sense!

When you look at the times we live in :: and then take a look at this new Chrysler Windsor :: you might almost think we'd had advance information and special-built this far just to fit these times!

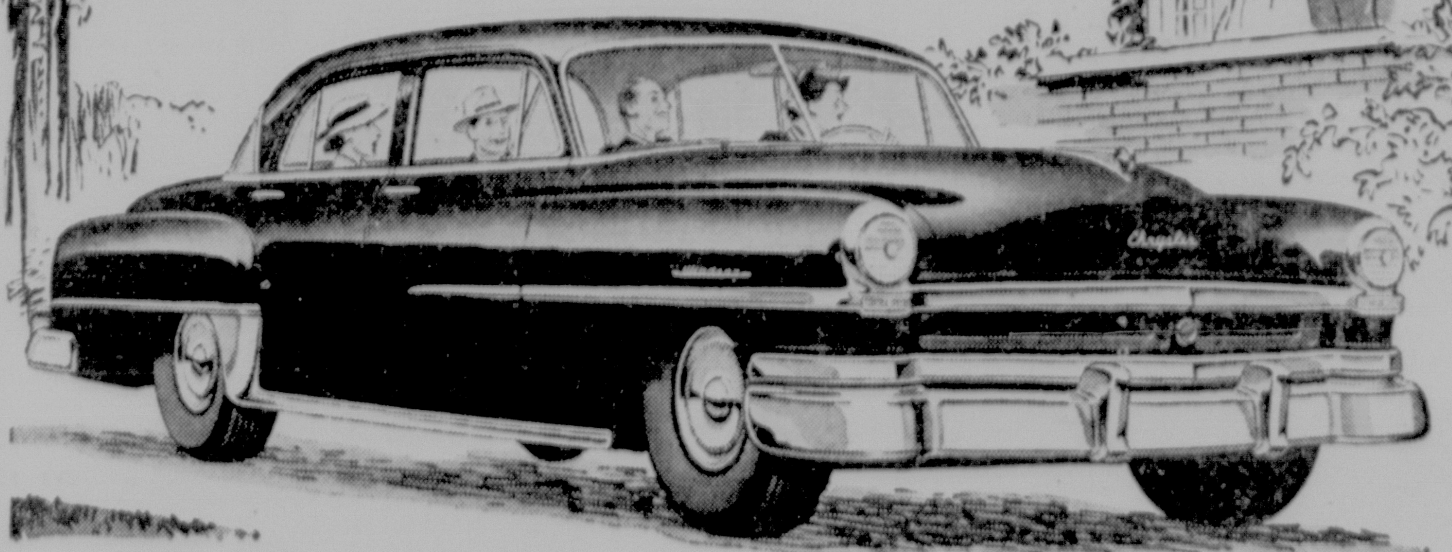

Certainly it treats your hard-earned and tight-stretched dollars with a respect that's hard to find in a good many things you buy:

To begin with, the Windsor line is the least-priced of the three lines of cars we build at Chrysler. To buy one gets you all the basic goodness Chrysler engineering means, at the very lowest cost. That's good sense in itself.

In powerplant, your Windsor brings you Chrysler Spitfire :: one of the truly great engines in the whole bright history of America's motor cars. Time-proved and owner-beloved, it would be hard to put your money on a sounder friend than this to live and travel with you through the months ahead!

As to comfort, Windsor brings you the amazing travel bonus all Chrysler owners get this year :: the revolutionary new Oriflow shock absorber. With more than twice the shock-absorbing power of any other in the world, this amazing new device keeps wheels steady on the road, and riders steady in their seats.

As you can see, it is no idle claim that this car makes very special sense in these unusual times. But why not get the whole good story at first hand? Why not go see your Chrysler Dealer, very soon?

Beautiful to look at!...
Beautiful to drive!

Tax on a Wife's Salary

Married women without young children are being counted on to relieve much of the manpower shortage in the present defense emergency. Even the wife whose husband gets a good salary could be attracted by the high wages and salaries open to women these days. At the same time, the working wife will keep in mind how much of a cut the Federal income tax will take out of her pay envelop or salary check.

Here, for instance, is a wife who takes a job that pays her $67.50 a week. Suppose that her husband earns $5500 a year, that neither of them has any other income or a dependent, and that they file a joint return taking the standard deductions.

Well, the income tax under the new rates proposed by Federal Administration would be $900 a year if the only family income were the husband's salary. The tax would rise to $1700—$800 ($15.25 a week) more—after the wife takes that job. In other words, the higher tax reduces her $67.50 gross to $52.25 a week, net, as far as the total family income is concerned.

Here is a wife who takes a job at $40 a week. If her husband has an excellent position paying $8900 a year, the income tax under the Administration-proposed rates would be $550 more because of the wife's income. Her $40 a week is reduced to a little less than $30, net. Then if the part-time job develops into one paying $400 a year, the additional income tax reduces the $400 to about $2700, net. And all this takes no account of any state income tax.

Also, the working wife has outlays for transportation, lunch, probably clothing and laundry, perhaps some additional maid service, that she would not have as a stay-at-home wife. So if she decides to take a job in this emergency she will probably be influenced not only by the money but also by the patriotic principle of the thing.

Babies Don't Vote

The ways of legislative agencies often are strange. And one of the strangest is the blockade in the State Senate's Judiciary General Committee of three bills to give babies a square deal in adoptions.

These bills were drafted after long investigation and careful consideration. Their object is to wipe out the black markets and gray markets in babies and to set up some kind of standard for adoptions.

Another purpose is to make it possible for worthy couples to adopt children, with protection for both children and foster-parents against haphazard adoptions.

The need and the remedy both have been established by the Legislature's own study agency, the Joint State Government Commission. The bills now bottled up in committee conform with that commission's findings.

The adoption bills have been endorsed by many and powerful organizations—the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, Federation of Women's Clubs, Chambers of Commerce, CIO, A.F. of L., Kiwanis and Lions clubs, among others.

Still the bills rest in committee. And the finger points to Chairman A. Evans Kephart, Philadelphia Republican, as the factor blocking them.

There is no public explanation of why Mr. Kephart sits on the bills, or what forces in his home district of Philadelphia oppose them.

Best guess is that professional social workers in the Eastern city, because of their objections to details of the plan, are opposing the whole effort to improve adoption procedure.

Babies don't vote. So politicians presumably can safely ignore their interests—for a time.

But both the members of the Senate committee and the unseen opponents of the adoption bills might think of the harvest they'll reap by their stubbornness.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

John Golden, veteran theatrical producer, has given up trying to guess what will or will not make a sophisticated New York audience laugh. "I've seen them sit on their hands at scenes that had them rolling in the aisle at try-outs," he says, "only to roar at lines that fell flat as a pancake in Elmira or Troy."

"There was one story in 'Seventh Heaven,' for instance, that we almost cut at the last minute. The girl, Arlette, told the village priest, 'Our neighbor has cut off his goat's nose.' The priest echoed, 'Cut off his nose? How does he smell?' Arlette said, 'terrible.' And that corny joke had fellows like Woolcott and Brown in stitches."

Groucho Marx's son Arthur is now a big man, with a published novel to his credit. Groucho remembers when he was a pernickety little brat, loudly demanding an air rifle. "You'll have no gun as long as I'm head of this family," asserted Groucho firmly. "If I ever get the gun," retorted the boy just as firmly, "you're not going to be head of this family."

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood — I don't know whether Farley Granger and Shelley Winters are deeply in love or whether they'll marry. But theirs is certainly the kidingest as well as best-publicized movieland romance, just now.

We lunched between scenes of "Behave Yourself," a farce murder-mystery capitalizing on their off-screen life by co-starring them. Interviewer: "I understand you're planning to marry soon." Shelley: "If we don't kill each other in the picture, we might."

Shapely Shelley said she planned to vacation in Europe for two or three months, starting probably in June. Farley, a handsome lad with a jut-pawed grin, said he's got over after finishing another picture. Interviewer: "You'll see Europe together?" Farley nodded. Shelley: "We may run into each other. An uncle and aunt of mine from New York City will go along. Ben and Kay Schrift. He runs a television studio."

Interviewer: "You've been going together roughly two years, haven't you?" Farley: "Roughly is right."

They first met—while with other dates—at a restaurant. They had an argument right away. Miss Winters, who came to Hollywood from Broadway, maintained that movie actors need stage training. Farley said there was "great snobism among New York people who are dying to get into pictures but say, 'Oh, Hollywood! This (the theater) is culture. You don't have to act to be in pictures!'"

Shelley told me: "I've found that in eight hours a day in front of a camera you learn as much about acting as you can on the stage."

One of their first dates was to a performance of the opera "La Boheme." Shelley worked late on a set that day. She wore a too-small evening dress from the wardrobe department to the opera. An ermine stole hid the safety-pin gap up the back. After the opera they danced at Mocambo. Farley's hand concealing the safety pin.

Interviewer: "Farley, have you asked Shelley to marry you?" He stubbed out his cigarette. Shelley: "Just say we've discussed it. It's a very serious step, and we want to be sure." Farley: "Shelley has a firm objection to marriage, like the killing. It's always Mr. and Mrs."

These Days — By George E. Sokolsky

Sokolsky

The Issue is Acheson
Now that General Douglas MacArthur has had his week and the country has burst its bounds of anger and enthusiasm, it becomes clear that politically the quarrel is over Dean Acheson. President Truman has indicated beyond doubt that he has confidence in and supports Dean Acheson. The Republicans will continue their opposition to Dean Acheson and will make such an issue of him that his conduct of the state department will be before the people from now until after the election of 1952.

General Douglas MacArthur's dismissal has proved to have been a political error on the part of President Truman. The brusque method did not work with the country. After all, General MacArthur has been in the service of his country 52 years and to the public he is a hero. Even those who disagreed with MacArthur's ideas or his conduct felt that the President might have employed some other method than a disgraceful dismissal.

A President's work is so arduous, his responsibilities so great that he too soon becomes a prisoner in the hands of those whom he hires to assist and protect him. Mr. Truman could have been told by his associates that popular opinion has been growing increasingly irritable over the numerous failures of our foreign policy. The country is shocked by our isolation. The machinations of Great Britain have stunned the people.

I am not discussing whether Dean Acheson or the British or Herbert Hoover or Senator Wherry is correct; I am trying to appraise public opinion, and I am sure that the enormous mail I have received during the past fortnight is public opinion. For while there is disagreement and confusion, there is also surprise and shock. India's attitude toward the United States, Iran's attitude toward the United States, and that amazingly unfriendly speech of Lester Pearson, Canada's secretary of external affairs, have made many who even thought well of Acheson's policies wonder at our stark isolation.

The presence of General MacArthur in this country makes the situation more difficult for Dean Acheson. No man in the United States possesses a more detailed knowledge of the Far East. He may even tell of his basic quarrels with the state department over the attempt to load his administration with pro-Russian Communists and left-wingers. There is an interesting story in MacArthur's struggle with Dean Acheson which has lasted as long as the two men faced each other officially.

It is one of those fortuitous circumstances of politics that the army officer who received General MacArthur when he set foot on American soil was General Albert Wedemeyer, one of the most brilliant minds in our armed forces and great authority on Far Eastern affairs. He, too, tangled with and a great authority on Far Eastern affairs. He, too, tangled with Dean Acheson on the Far East and Acheson won the argument. Although Wedemeyer's usefulness to the joint chiefs of staff at this time is beyond doubt, he has been situated at San Francisco in a housekeeping job.

It is impossible to investigate the MacArthur dismissal and the events that led to it without investigating the suppression of the Wedemeyer reports on China and Korea. Nor will it be possible to avoid a study of Acheson's appeasement, which he does not regard as appeasement but as technical negotiations. Acheson's speech to the newspaper women in Washington did not establish his denial of appeasement—which has, since Munich, become an offensive word.

The fact that he chose to speak on the Far East the night before General MacArthur's speech to Congress, after a silence since November, indicated to many that Acheson realizes what he faces. It was in that speech that he reverted to MacArthur's earlier proposal for a Pacific alliance, omitting Formosa, of course. But as General MacArthur made clear in his speech to Congress, the Philippines would be imperiled from within and without, should Formosa be held by either Soviet Russia or Soviet China. At any rate, on the subject of the Philippines, no man can speak with greater authority and stature than General MacArthur and he has spoken of both the Philippines and Formosa.

So here we enter upon another debate which will be made vehement, more articulate than the "Great Debate." The Far Eastern debate may become so tense as to affect all other questions. President Truman and Dean Acheson have long sought to prevent this debate from breaking into the open. Now, it is in the open and they brought it on themselves.

Washington Report

By Fulton Lewis Jr.

Washington—This is a strategy for victory in Asia. It consists chiefly of reversing the State Department-Truman policy of appeasing Russia that has been in effect since the end of World War II.

Two overt acts are needed to toss overboard the trembling clique in Washington that has consistently twisted U. S. strength into international cowardice. They are:

1. Notify the Chinese Communists that they have ten days to evacuate North Korea, cease aerial warfare and halt all munition traffic with Soviet Russia.

The penalty for failing to comply will be round-the-clock bombardment by U. S. air and sea forces of any and all remunerative targets in Manchuria or elsewhere in China.

2. Notify the Soviet Union that unless it ceases aiding the Chinese Communists, and/or if it attempts in any way to extend the Korean War, our strategic air force of atom bombers will be launched for an assault on Soviet cities.

It is the opinion of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gen. Matthew Ridgway and Air Force Gen. George E. Stratemeyer that one, hard aerial blow would cripple the Chinese Communist air and ground forces now pouring out of Manchuria into North Korea.

It is the opinion of military men everywhere in the allied world that Russia is bent on conquering the U. S. in a global war, either now or sometime in the not too distant future.

Compared to the Soviet Union we are today ten times as strong atomically. The President of the United States, in attempting to pump an additional 10 billion dollars more in defense tax money out of us, has implied that only our atomic superiority has kept Russia from launching an all-out war. Time, all agree, permits nothing so much as allowing Russia a breathing spell so her atomic developments can catch up with ours.

The strategy for victory proposed here cannot endanger the U. S. past the point of our current hazards. It would bring peace in Asia and place the fear that exists in our state department back in the Kremlin where it belongs.

We have nothing to lose. We apparently are on the road to war with Russia. If we lose Asia we will have traveled many more miles toward that eventual conflict, without the bases, the manpower or the resources of the Asian mainland.

On the one hand we have a calculated risk for gaining peace by being tough for once. On the other hand we have vague promises from President Truman that peace is possible so long as we maintain a restrained war with China and continue gabbing with the enemy. In three public addresses Mr. Truman has done nothing more than to assert he is right, largely because secretary of state Dean Acheson has told him he is.

If this strategy for victory is war-bongering, let Acheson and his sycophants make the most of it. The alternate is to get out of Korea without further palaver. To stay under present military shackles only dooms the fighting men to a lingering, diplomatic death.

Never before in history has a President or a Secretary of State of this nation begged a foe to cease firing. Mr. Truman and Acheson have consistently pleaded with the Communists to quit picking on us. They say that if we strike Chinese asses, Russia will enter the war.

Russia did not declare war against us when our forces attacked the North Koreans with ships, planes and guns. Despite this fact, however, there has been a steady outpouring of state department warnings that we can shoot the Chinese Communists in Korea with impunity but will start a global war if we shoot Chinese Communists in China.

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Many of you have probably got a chuckle out of that story about the banquet given to President Auril, France, at which Trygve Lie got himself into an awful tither because he had not been seated according to "protocol." According to reports, he ran all over the place and appealed to everybody, including Grover Whalen, New York's perennial master of ceremonies, because, in his opinion, others not ranking quite as high as he had seats closer to the French President. "Protocol" had been violated, said Mr. Lie.

"Protocol"—one of the silliest institutions Man in his littleness ever invented.

Yet, protocol is a fence hemming in not only officials, but people in all walks of life.

Trygve Lie comes from a small country. His job may be important, but it is not nearly as important as those of many others who at that same banquet, sat at tables much farther away from the dais and the lenses of the photographers than he.

Those inconspicuous men and women who sat quietly wherever they were put, were famous scientists and professional successes, bankers, business leaders and whatnot.

They had more vital things on their minds than their place at the trough.

To them this banquet in honor of President Auril was not simply an occasion to be seen and perhaps to get a little publicity.

Just what makes people so pleyunish?

And why is it that the smaller they are, the more they ARE that way?

Take any public affair in any community. It doesn't matter whether it is the Rotary, the Lions, the Kiwanis.

There will always be squawkers. There will always be fellows who think they have been slighted.

Ask anyone in your own town who has ever had to arrange an affair. And don't think that it is confined to men. From what I hear the women are worse than the men, if that be possible.

To satisfy everybody the whole room would have to be a dais. Everybody would have to be right next to the guest of honor or the principal speaker.

That is, everybody except those who are REALLY important.

What makes a person important? What makes him BIG?

It is the thinking of BIG thoughts, the doing of IMPORTANT things.

If your mind is occupied with big things, you are too busy with them to think of the little ones.

Nobody can be a big and a little man at the same time—any more than a size six had will fit a size eight head.

However, I am told by haberdashers that there are more size six heads trying to wear size eight hats than vice versa.

Every one of us, I suppose, has his own idea of heaven.

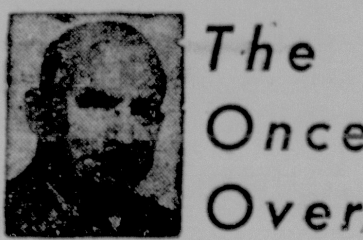

I wonder where those fellows who worry so much about protocol here on earth, imagine they are going to sit in the hereafter.

It's A Different April

One hundred and seventy-six years ago this month Paul Revere made his famous midnight ride and we can't help wondering what he would be up against if he tried it today. There's a spur shortage, saddles are hard to get, any horse that can raise a gallop is in the racing entries somewhere, and a man around the waterfront impatiently demonstrating a heavy stride is pretty sure to get into plenty of trouble. He could never get away with a simple "Shush! One if by land, two if by sea!" Somebody would call a cop with the resultant dialogue:

"Whatcha doin' here, buddy?"
"Me? Just watchin'!"
"Movements by land or sea?"
"Expectin' any?"
"Sort of."
"What kind of movements?"
"I'll take anything. Excuse me, please, I've got to gaze at the landscape far and near, be impetuous, pat my horse's side, etcetera, etcetera."

"What's the idea of the horse, bub?"

"You can't have a hurry of hoofs in a village street without a horse, my friend."

"Wise guy, eh? Listen. I don't like the looks of this. Are you workin' alone?"

"No I have a friend who through alley and street wanders and watches with eager ears. Pardon me a moment."

"What for?"
"I have to pat my horse's side, stamp the earth and tighten the saddle girth. Remember?"

"What're you starin' at?"

"I'm watching with eager search."

"For what?"
"A glimmer. You haven't noticed a glimmer around here to-night, have you? . . . a glimmer and gleam of light?"

"So you're one of them guys that watches for glimmers, eh?"

"I certainly am. And it's most important work. This country be better off if it had more glimmer searchers."

"Oh yeah! Where's your glimmer searchers' license?"

"Do I need a license to hunt glimmers?"

"Yeah. And let's see your social security, draft card, old-age-pension papers, horse license, jockey license, unemployment relief record and income tax receipts."

"One side! I see the lanterns! The fate of the nation is riding this night! Beneath from the peddles there must be a spark struck out by a steel flying fearless and fleet to kindle a land into flame with its heat. Coming, Mystic! Coming, Medford!"

"I thought so. A firebug! PULL THAT HORSE OVER TO THE CURB! And gimme no lip!"

Excerpts from Our 106th Annual Report...

The Fight Against Inflation

WHAT GOVERNMENT SHOULD DO:

"First of all, it is imperative that non-essential expenditures, whether for civilian or military purposes, should be reduced to the bone. Taxes should be increased so as to place the defense program, so far as possible, on a pay-as-you-go basis. Monetary and economic controls should be installed so as to combat an inflationary increase in the money supply and to restrict wage and price increases lest the financial effect of other measures be nullified.

"If expenses are expanded too far it will not be possible, without great damage to our economy, to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis. Deficits, therefore, may have to be financed through new issues of securities by the government. Such securities should be issued on terms and at rates of interest that will encourage their sale to private investors and not to banks. The sale of government securities to banks tends to increase the supply of money and is therefore inflationary."

WHAT INDIVIDUALS SHOULD DO:

1. Recognize that there cannot be either magical avoidance or effortless solution of the problems we face.
2. Urge our representatives in government to fight the forces that threaten to undermine our economy. And support them vigorously when they do what is right, even when it is unpopular.

3. Don't buy what we don't need; use what we have sparingly. In both ways this will reduce the demand for goods.

4. Pay higher taxes ungrudgingly. It is better to pay stiff taxes and check inflation than to enjoy the delusion of an exaggerated income and reckon later with a damaged economy.

5. Increase our savings. Money put into life insurance, government savings bonds and other forms of saving, helps to check inflation."

From the Letter to Policyholders signed by George L. Harrison, Chairman of the Board, and Descreux C. Josephs, President.

Serving Human Needs

Behind every fact, behind every figure in the year's report lies a human story... a story of what life insurance is doing to give hope and security to somebody, someplace. The Annual Report contains several real-life stories, showing how—thanks to the efforts of a skilled agent—insurance is helping folks today in neighborhoods like yours.

tended to flow where they were most needed by the national economy; whether to build the railroads of a growing nation or to help our government protect the country in time of war. The kind of investments the New York Life made during the past decade will illustrate this role as dramatically as anything can."

Introduction to an illustrated article in the Annual Report on the changing patterns of investing during the past ten years.

HAVE YOU LOOKED IN YOUR MEDICINE CHEST LATELY?

"If it's anything like the average family's, it's well-stocked with sundry specifics for last year's ailments... pills and palliatives, syrups, salves and potions, lozenges and capsules—and the extra key to the garage. But where is that roll of sterile gauze? Adhesive tape? Antiseptic?"

From a timely article in the Annual Report entitled "When Accidents Happen," containing a check list of essential first-aid supplies for serious emergencies.

"IT'S DODGE FOR DEPENDABILITY"

You could pay up to $1,000 more and still not get all the extra room, riding comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge

TAKE THE WORD of owners who know Dodge value and dependability from actual experience. "No major repairs in four years' driving" ... "After driving another make less than a year, I'm back with Dodge again" ... "Driven my Dodge 150,000 miles and it's still going strong." These are not unusual comments we receive from Dodge owners coast-to-coast.

Dodge dependability starts with a heavy, rugged frame, a "Get-Away" engine "speed-proofed" to resist wear, designed to be a miser on gas. There's a safe, rigid, all-steel body, rubber-mounted to eliminate rattle, squeak.

New Safer, Smoother Ride Dodge Oriflow Shock Absorbers "float"

you over roads that stop other cars, cushion vital chassis parts against road shocks ... make them last years longer. Longer lasting, smooth acting Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes make every mile you travel safer, more relaxed.

"I'VE PUT THE EQUIVALENT OF FOUR YEARS' DRIVING ON MY '50 DODGE!"

"As a salesman, my 1930 Dodge is always on the go. I figure that I have already put the equivalent of four years of average driving on it. It is without spending any appreciable amount of money for repairs."

—says Harry H. Hurst, Houston, Texas

"DROVE MY 1937 DODGE 150,000 MILES!"

Mine is a 1937 Dodge—and it's still going strong! It has already covered more than 150,000 honest, dependable miles. No wonder people say it's Dodge for dependability."

—says Mrs. Noble Swisher, Chicago, Ill.

"MY 1948 DODGE STILL LIKE NEW!"

"My work calls for thousands of miles of driving a year, yet my 1948 Dodge still has that 'new car' pep and feel. Outside of regular servicing, it has yet to see the inside of a repair shop."

Re-Elect All Officers In WSCSA Gap

Delaware Water Gap — Mrs. George Brockman was reelected president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Delaware Water Gap Methodist church at its meeting held recently.

Other officers who were re-elected were: Mrs. Harvey Hay, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Rapp, treasurer; and Mrs. Layton Osborn as assistant secretary. Mr. Nelson Lightner Sr. was elected as recording secretary.

During the devotional portion of the meeting Mrs. Merritt Godschalk gave a very interesting report of the lesson for the evening, "Women and Their Work and Health." It comprised a study of women in industry from the time when women first took their place in the business world. The Bible reading was presented by Mrs. Layton Osborn.

The report from the penny supper held during the past month proved to be very good.

A collection of clothing as well as money will be received and presented to Miss Clarkson, the missionary who recently spoke before the combined WSCS groups of Delaware Water Gap and Portland, before she returns to Japan to take up her missionary work.

The May meeting of the organization will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Shoemaker and she will be assisted in serving by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Stella Ridgeway.

Tasty refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Layton Zimmerman and Mrs. Madeline Meixell.

Deanna Messler Is Honored On 10th Birthday

A birthday party was held last week in celebration of the tenth birthday of Deanna Mae Messler, at her home. Refreshments and games were followed by a moving picture party for her guests.

People who can see the funny side when the joke's on them are a joy, and Kathryn Edwards had some good ones on the DAR at their meeting yesterday. Though probably the fact that she's so convinced of the underlying worth of the organizations that a few ribald comments on its foibles can't bother her a bit.

It was a shame to have to leave those fancy sandwiches untasted, and if I'd realized the size of the party they had for me today I'd have stayed anyway.

As it was, there was nothing to do but fill it up quick and go home before the phones started ringing with stories that had to get in—but couldn't. Much more peaceful to chase the squirrels out of the bird feeder—the rooster off the front porch, and the children to early bed than try to explain that space isn't elastic.

DAR'S Hear Of National Aims At Regents' Tea

The members of Jacob Stroud chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, yesterday afternoon heard first hand the impressions of her local delegates at the 60th Continental Congress of the national society, at which General MacArthur made his dramatic appearance, immediately after he had addressed Congress.

Mrs. G. Raymond Hood, regent, described the opening pageantry, and told of the 6,000 women in Constitution Hall who listened in utter silence to the broadcast of the speech and later gave a tumultuous welcome to the general.

At the Pennsylvania luncheon, the local club was honored when to Patricia Miller, of East Stroudsburg High school, was awarded honorable mention in the state Good Citizenship pilgrimage, ranking only five points below the top winner in the state.

Mrs. Harold C. Edward, past regent and present state corresponding secretary was presented by Dr. Edna B. Rosenkrans in a talk on "A Daughter Looks at Her National Society." The organization has often had a bad press, she said, and columnists and cartoonists have often had a field day at the expense of the organization.

Telling some of the jokes about the organization she contended that the real purposes behind it were a far cry from "jangling ancestral bars and buying orchids." She outlined its accomplishments in the field of education with the approved schools, two of which are owned by the DAR, and 11 of which receive substantial support; of the Indian schools and college; of Good Citizenship pilgrimages in the high schools; the DAR Citizenship manual which has been translated into 18 languages for the information of new immigrants and the 9,000 Junior American Citizens clubs.

Mrs. Edwards also stressed the historical objectives of the society and told of its outstanding museum in Washington, the Bell Tower at Valley Forge; the marking of Revolutionary graves and historical spots lest the nation forget the things in its past that made it great.

In the patriotic, she listed its insistence on national defense, its opposition to Federal Aid to education, to socialized medicine; and its support of restricted immigration, conservation, correct flag observance, and the keeping of genealogical records.

Mrs. Berton George was soloist, with Miss Bess Gardner playing the accompaniment of her three soprano solos. Mrs. Ernest H. Wyckoff gave the report of the nominating committee on officers to be elected in May; Mrs. Gordon Savage reported on plans for the May

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

"Dependable" is the word best used to describe Jake Nitel, veteran bowler who was doubly honored at the Delaware Valley league banquet last Saturday night, at Phillipsburg, N. J. Jake was rewarded for having the top average in the Delaware Valley league during the season just completed and for a similar mark among all the bowlers in Monroe county. However, to this writer the endurance mark set by Nitel is even more important than the average results.

Jake has rolled in the Delaware Valley league since it was formed 12 years ago, and the veteran kiegler has yet to miss his first match. Nitel is the type of kiegler who goes rolling along, regardless of whether he is with a winner or a loser. However, anybody who has ever watched Jake in action realizes that he gives nothing but his best, but in defeat can be just as popular as in victory.

It was evident from the beginning of the past season that the Central Labor Union bowling team wasn't destined to enjoy one of its better years. However, Nitel stayed right in the thick of the battle, bowling his best in every match, despite the fact that the East Stroudsburg team finished in the number five spot when the final standings were compiled. In 12 years of action in the Delaware Valley league Nitel has taken part in 1,008 consecutive games.

However, the same kiegler is currently sporting an even better record here in Monroe county, where he has rolled with the same circuit for 15 years without missing a game. The circuit has changed names several times since Nitel started bowling with it and is now known as the Record-Major league. Although Nitel doesn't know exactly how many consecutive games he has rolled in this circuit, he believes that it exceeds 1,300. Jake is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars bowling team that won the circuit championship during the season just completed.

Jake deserves a word of credit for overcoming a terrific physical handicap and developing into one of the finest bowlers in this section of Pennsylvania. His attitude and spirit are also worthy of praise and all are examples to any person who has ever rolled a bowling ball down an alley. Jake will be one of the guests at the Record-Major league bowling banquet, at the VFW Post, tomorrow night, at which time the VFW team will receive The Daily Record plaque for capturing the 1950-51 championship.

Walter "Hank" Polinski, former member of the Stroudsburg Poconos, and now listed to play with the Pocono A. C. entry in the Blue Mountain league, will be captain of the newly formed organization and first assistant to Manager John Schoonover. Polinski is an outfielder and Schoonover a pitcher. Polinski was also the property of Hagerstown, Md., of the Inter-State league, at one time. Schoonover played with the Poconos in 1946 and has also had extensive travels in the Minor leagues and a brief fling with the St. Louis Browns.

Frank Wolff, of Northampton, disappointed the bowling fans of Bangor over the past weekend, when the well known kiegler failed to live up to expectations at the fourth annual State Belt Singles Bowling Tournament. Wolff was counted upon to seriously threaten the record of 715 set the previous year by Abe Russell, of Pottsville. However, the Northampton resident fell far short of the mark and failed to place among the top eight at the end of the first weekend of action.

Bill Hillman finished second in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes at West Chester last Saturday, but the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College track star has been hampered by a pulled leg muscle in recent drill sessions and according to reports isn't quite up to snuff at the present time. Bloomsburg was scheduled to make it a triangular meet with West Chester and ESSTC, but made other arrangements to clash with West Chester in a dual meet at a later date. At the present time ESSTC and Bloomsburg do not clash in regularly scheduled events between each other.

Benny Jones, football and junior basketball coach at Brookville High school, near Sharon, Pa., will return to his home in Stroudsburg late next month for a vacation of three weeks before entering New York University's summer school. Jones coached the Brookville grid machine to seven victories in nine starts during the 1950 season for one of the best campaigns in the school's recent football history. Harry Obitz is back at his familiar job of head professional at Shawnee Inn and looking forward to another successful golf season at the local resort. Jack Cuttle, head pro at Pocono Manor, is also busy getting that club in mid-season form as soon as possible.

Stroudsburg High Host To Pen Argyl Nine Today

Cavaliers Launch Season On Road

Two firsts will feature today's baseball as far as East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg High schools are concerned. The Cavaliers will be taking part in their first game of the present campaign, while the Mountaineers of Stroudsburg play host to Pen Argyl, in quest of their first victory of the present Lehigh Valley

Diamond Date Set

Jerry Stulgaitis, coach of the Stroudsburg High school baseball team, announced last night that the Mountaineers would oppose East Stroudsburg at Gordon Giffels field on Wednesday, May 23 this season. The two schools agreed on the date yesterday.

league season. Both games are scheduled to get underway at 4 p.m.

East Stroudsburg will invade the home grounds of Wilson Borough to open the Lehigh-Northampton league season and Ray Steele, veteran right hander, has been trusted with the assignment of getting the Cavaliers off in winning fashion.

Coach Jack Kist announced last night that the outfield will feature George Litts in right, Bill Harris, center, and Lawrence Cramer, left. Harold Litts will do the catching. The infield will find Gerard Rogers at first base, John Marston, second base; Don France, third base, and Leo Dailey, shortstop.

Relief

John Polinski and Harold "Sonny" Eaton, both right-handers, will be ready in relief today, should Steele falter.

Stroudsburg will be playing at Gordon Giffels field while East-burg is on the road and the Mountaineers will be trying to land their initial victory against Pen Argyl, number one club in the Lehigh-Northampton league last year and PIAA District 11 title holder at the same time.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis, plainly worried over the light hitting tactics of his club, announced last night that "Will" Eilenberger, a southpaw, will be on the hill for the W. Main St. school.

Stulgaitis announced that he was undecided about only one starting position for today's game and that was in left field. However, either Dick Schmidt or Les Slutter will receive the call, while Alden "Red" Fetherman handles center field and Gene Caslick occupies right.

The infield will feature Floyd Williams, first base; Jerry Fritz, second base; Karl Weingartner, shortstop, and Jack Newell, third base. Layton DeHaven will do the catching for the Mountaineers.

Bangor Plays

Bangor High will also be opening its Lehigh-Northampton league campaign today, when the charges of Coach Dave Thomas stack up against Hellertown, at 4 p. m., on the latter's home field. Glen Raph will probably receive the starting pitching assignment for the Slaters. The Thomasmen have three exhibition games under their belt thus far, but on each occasion finished on the short end of the final count.

Tickets To Be Sold

Tickets for the Thursday, May 17 wrestling show to be held at the East Stroudsburg High school gymnasium will go on sale tomorrow, it was announced last night by Seymour Katz, chairman of the Lions club athletic committee. The grunt and growl show is being sponsored by the Stroudsburg Lions club.

Alfred Aceto, Philadelphia promoter, who presented the December show, has promised the area another card of top flight talent.

A's Begin, Finish Strong--But Yankees Do Damage In Between As Raschi Notches Victory

By Jack Hand

New York (AP)—Big Vic Raschi knocked over his favorite sparring partners, the Philadelphia A's, 5-4 yesterday after a rocky start as the New York Yankees ripped Lou Brissie and "Hank" Wyse for 13 hits.

The hulking righthander, holder of a lifetime 17-2 edge over the A's, had a scare in the first and another in the last inning of a game witnessed by only 8,275 customers. But when the final totals were in he had a six-hit victory for his second straight victory.

Rookie Mickey Mantle and veteran Joe DiMaggio led the Yanks out of a hitting slump in their first meeting with Philadelphia. Mantle, the 19-year-old rookie phenom, lined two singles to center and beat out a drag bunt. Joe D. singled in the two-run second and lined an important double down the left field line in the two-run sixth.

Two singles and three walks added up to two runs for a short-lived Philadelphia lead. The Yanks tied it in the second and knocked out Brissie in the sixth when they scored twice. They added another in the seventh, and the game seemed in the bag.

Pinch Homer

But in the ninth Lou Limmer, the A's first base rookie, hit a two-run pinch-hit home run into the right field lower stands. The 320-foot drive was his first big league home run, coming off Raschi's first pitch.

Singles by Eddie Joost and Elmer Vaho started off the first, A sacrifice and Sam Chapman's fly produced one run. Then Raschi passed Ferris Fain and Billy Hitchcock to load them up. He walked Kermit Wahl to force in a run before he settled down.

DiMaggio's single, Jackie Jensen's walk and a single by Billy Johnson gave the Yanks their first score in the second. Phil Rizzuto's left field single drove home Jensen to tie the score.

The Yanks caught up with Lefty Brissie in the sixth. He walked Yogi Berra before DiMaggio doubled. Jensen was passed intentionally to load the bases. Johnny's Mize's single, a liner that Hitchcock couldn't hold after getting it in his glove, scored Berra and knocked out Brissie. Rizzuto's single off reliever "Hank" Wyse brought home DiMaggio.

The Yanks picked up their final score in the seventh on Mantle's untimed single, a sacrifice and walk and Jensen's single. Philadelphia 200 000 002-4 6 0 New York ...020 002 10x-5 13 0

Umpire Pact Signed At Loop Meeting

Stockertown — Rough edges were smoothed off for the opening of the Blue Mountain league on Sunday, May 13, here last night when the circuit held its final business meeting before opening day, at the Memorial Fire hall. Every team in the circuit was represented at the gathering.

Contracts of players held the center of the stage during most of the meeting, although the league officially signed a contract with the Blue Mountain Umpires Association for the coming campaign. This organization will supply umpires all through the coming campaign.

Frank Cortez, president of the association, and James Schlegel, assigner of umpires, represented the association at last night's meeting.

Dates

Players for opening day action must be signed before Tuesday, May 1, and any player signed after that time must wait five days before playing in a league game. No players can be signed after the Saturday, June 30 deadline.

The league agreed to hold its next meeting in East Stroudsburg, on Wednesday, May 21, at the George N. Kemp American Legion Post home.

Fred Hershey and John Schoonover, general manager and manager respectively, represented Pocono A.C. at last night's affair.

Hershey announced following the meeting that Pocono A.C. would practice tonight, tomorrow and Thursday, in preparation for the two weekend exhibition games with Riegel Ridge, N.J., of the Tri-County league.

All players are urged to turn in all ads at tonight's practice, in order that all score card work may be finished this week.

Pafko Leads Cubs To Victory, 2-1

Chicago (AP)—Andy Pafko hit one for the ladies yesterday—a game winning two-bagger in the last of the ninth — to give the Chicago Cubs a 2-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Yesterday's win before a Ladies' Day throng of 13,004 was the Cubs' fourth in five games this season.

Five Hits

The Cubs were able to get only five hits off Mel Queen, Pirate righthander. But one was Bill Serena's home run in the fifth, another blow was Pafko's tie-breaking double that scored Hal Jeffcoat.

The game-winning rally began with "Hank" Sauer's single, after two were out. Jeffcoat ran for him, and moved to second when Phil Cavaretta walked.

Group Begins Schedule Work

Six members of the conference committee of schools in the Lehigh Valley and Lehigh-Northampton leagues met at East Stroudsburg High school yesterday, at which time work on a 1952 conference schedule got underway. It was announced last night by Alfred W. Munson, Stroudsburg High principal and co-chairman of the committee.

Desired Games

Schools hopeful of forming the circuit sent in a preferred list of games, disregarding their present league setups. This formed the basis for the work on the new schedule. The slate of games wasn't completed yesterday.

Those present at the meeting in addition to Munson were Ralph O. Burrows, East Stroudsburg principal and co-chairman; Carl Secor, supervising principal of East Stroudsburg public schools; Donald Deniston, Palmyerton principal; Don Keats, superintendent of schools at Bangor; Trevor Williams, principal at Bangor and Allen Jackson, principal at Pen Argyl.

Phillies Sting Giants With Fifth Straight Setback, 8-4

Philadelphia (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies stung the New York Giants with their fifth straight defeat last night, 8-4. Lefty "Jockey" Thompson scattered six hits for the win. Big Jim Hearn, a Phils nemesis last year, was the loser. A crowd of 17,823 saw the first after-dark National league game at Shibe Park.

Hearn had beaten the Phils nine straight times before last night. The Giants, as a team, had beaten the Phils six consecutive times at the end of last season.

New York got off to a 2-0 lead in the second inning on Jack "Lucky" Lohrke's homerun with West Strum on base via walk.

Tie Count

The Phils knotted the score in their half of the inning on two singles, a walk and Westrum's wild peg into center field in an attempt to catch Ed Pellagrini stealing second base.

Bobby Thomson's second home run of the year with two out in the third inning again put the Giants in front, 3-2.

The Phils recaptured the lead in the fourth on three hits, a walk and an error. Granny Hamner's lead-off triple was the big blow. New York ...021 010 000-4 6 2 Philadelphia 020 201 21x-8 14 0

Eight Track, Field Records Recognized By Amateur Group

London, (AP)—Eight track and field marks, including four by Americans, were recognized as world records yesterday by the International Amateur Athletic Federation.

Of the other four records, all by women, three were credited to Russia, and one to Sweden.

The American record men are Shotputter Jim Fuchs of Yale; Sprinter George Rhoden, of Morgan State; Hurdler Dick Attlesley, of Southern California, and Sgt. Mal Whitfield of the U. S. Air Force.

Fuchs, the Yale strong man, was credited with three different records for the 16-pound shot. The big one was his heave of 58 feet, 10 1/2 inches (17.95 meters) at Eskilstuna, Sweden, last August 22. The previous listed record of 58 feet, three-eighths inch was held by Charles Fomville of Michigan.

Same Meet

In the same meet, Rhoden reeled off the 400-meter dash in 45.8 seconds, a tenth of a second better than Herb McKenley's old standard.

Appliances From Sears Featured

The new 1951 lines of electrical appliances now on display at Sears will be featured in a series of four cooking schools sponsored by The Daily Record at the Sherman Theatre starting Wednesday morning.

According to Henry Kresge, store manager, the 1951 Coldspot is the best Coldspot ever built. He went on to point out that the entire line has been redesigned and now features a full length door and top-to-floor cold storage space.

Among the new features included in many of the eight models are: a servi-shelf built into the door which provides storage for hard to locate items, a chiller for meats and beverages, an exclusive humidity control which provides correctly controlled humidity, full width porcelain enameled crispers, adjustable shelves that require only a simple push and pull to change. There is also a new butter-ready server included in several of the new models which keeps butter at the right temperature for easy spreading. The eight Coldspot models range in size from aspace saving seven cubic foot model to an 11 cubic foot giant.

New Range Features

Many new exclusive features have been incorporated in the 1951 Kenmore ranges and Mr. Kresge was glad to point them out. Among the gas ranges there is a 42 inch range with a big cast aluminum griddle right in the middle that makes those grilled breakfasts and snacks easier than ever.

Moving over to the five new models of Kenmore electric ranges, Mr. Kresge explained that the 1951 models have a highspeed rocket burner. This 2 in 1 unit, says Mr. Kresge, will fry bacon in 60 seconds.

Among the new models is a 42 inch range that features two big ovens, an 8 position smokeless boiler rack, visi-bake oven door, storage drawers that open with a touch of the toe and automatic keyboard, push button cooking.

Mr. Kresge is demonstrating the new home laundry showed how the washer, which needs no bolting down, took a nine pound load of wash through the washing cycle that includes seven complete rinses and spins clothes dry with a single touch of the dial.

The washing completed, the clothes were taken out of the washer, incidentally its top loading eliminating stooping and placed in the dryer that is styled to match the washer.

As the clothes were drying, Mr. Kresge explained how the dryer was designed to protect clothes from scorching, how an exclusive cylinder design provides an air flow circulation for maximum drying efficiency.

The drying cycle completed the dryer shut off automatically and the clothes were removed, fresh, sweet smelling, ready for ironing. Just how quick and easy ironing can be, was clearly shown in a demonstration of the Kenmore Automatic Ironer which can be arranged in your home at your convenience. It has a full 26-inch width ironing roll, finger-tip or knee pressand ironing controls.

Kream-ee Ice Cream, Local Product, Known For Purity, Flavor, General Acceptance

When the Misses Grace Shankweiler and Katherine Guildin, home economists, open The Daily Record's Free Cooking School Wednesday morning of this week at the Sherman Theatre, they will present Kream-ee Ice Cream, a local product which has had a herculean growth because of its purity, flavor and general acceptance.

Many have eaten Kream-ee Ice Cream and know of its smooth texture, its delicious flavor and its wholesome goodness... yet not too many folks know that Kream-ee Ice Cream is made right here in East Stroudsburg.

Others are unaware of the modern equipment and the facilities of the State St. plant of the Kream-ee Ice Cream Co. where Kream-ee Ice Cream is manufactured.

The manufacturers of the quality product have had a wealth of experience in this field, having been identified with ice cream manufacturing and distribution of ice cream since the war.

Kream-ee Ice Cream can be had in most any type mold you want. It comes in any number of flavors.

It will be to your advantage to order from your dealer in advance for any quantities or special arrangements you may desire.

Don't Push Large Servings Of Foods On Youngsters; Make Meals Look Attractive

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Young appetites take to attractive foods, so pay some attention to the way you serve your small fry's meals. Don't push large servings on him; small portions, please! Better two small servings that are eaten than one big one that is pushed away.

See that your youngster has a chair that suits his size. He needs to be seated comfortably with firm support for his feet. A toddler's dishes and eating utensils should be ones he can easily manage. Bite-size pieces of food are in order, too, rather than food he has to struggle with.

Children love "parties"—and fortunately for mothers, cookies and a milk shake spell a party to them. So on a rainy day or a Saturday afternoon, try these recipes using handy cans or jars of baby-food, and give your toddler a treat.

Fruit Milk Shake

Ingredients: 1 egg (well beaten), 3 tablespoons strained peaches or apricots with farina, 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1 cup milk.

Method: Mix egg, fruit and orange juice. Add milk, mix well again and serve to two small boys or girls.

Variation: Add a little ice cream to the fruit and beat well before adding other ingredients.

Quick Milk Shake

Stir one-half can of any baby-food strained fruit into one cup of milk; shake well and serve to two runabouts.

To "shake" these milk shakes use a jar with a tight fitting cover. Or if you have an electric liquidizer or blender you can whip up the shake in it.

Applesauce Cookies

Ingredients: ½ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ½ teaspoon cloves, 1 egg, 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1 cup junior applesauce, 1 cup raisins.

Method: Cream butter or margarine; add sugar, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves. Continue creaming. Add egg and beat mixture until fluffy. Mix in flour alternately with applesauce. Add raisins and stir until thoroughly blended. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased cookie sheet and bake in moderately hot (475°F.) oven until lightly browned, about 10 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen medium-sized cookies.

Weekday Lunch

Apricot Loaf Beverage
(Apricot Loaf Recipe)

Ingredients: 1 cup dried apricots, ½ cup water, 6 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 cake compressed yeast, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1½ tablespoons salt, 1 egg, ½ cup coarsely chopped nuts (optional), 4 cups sifted all-purpose flour (approximate).

Method: Rinse and drain apricots. Add water and 6 tablespoons sugar and boil 10 minutes. Drain, reserving syrup, and cut apricots into small pieces. Cool. Scald milk and cool to lukewarm, add crumbled yeast and stir until dissolved. Cream shortening, 1 tablespoon sugar, and salt. Add dis-

Flagstaff Foods Used Exclusively

Flagstaff Foods will be used exclusively in the cooking school demonstrations of The Daily Record, and will form a major portion of the content of the market basket awards.

At each school session Flagstaff foods will be packed in copious bags, and a number of fortunate women will take home an assortment of these fine packaged and canned foods. It is in an effort to acquaint all consumers and residents of this area with this high quality packaged food line, packed under the Flagstaff label that this famous brand is being featured at The Daily Record's free cooking school by "the house that quality built."

Known throughout the country, Flagstaff's name enjoys an enviable reputation for consistent high and uniform quality. Extreme care exercised in the growing, selecting and processing of all foods packed under the Flagstaff label, with constant supervision and control of quality assures everyone of the best on the table at prices that will delight those in charge of the family purse strings.

Flagstaff foods are sold only by friendly neighborhood grocers, and it is through the co-operation of Ackerman's Food center that Flagstaff Foods are cooking school co-sponsors. Probably you have been among those thousands of people who have read the weekly advertising for Ackerman's new self-service Food Center, at the corner of Bryant and Broad streets in South Stroudsburg, but if you have not visited that new establishment, you have really missed something.

Here is a store, new in physical makeup, but old in tradition, for Mr. Ackerman has been a merchant in South Stroudsburg for many years. His policy of fair dealing has built a business for him which grew so rapidly that it became necessary for him to enlarge his business many times.

As a result of this thinking, Ackerman's Self Service Food market is now lodged in its own big fireproof building and is so departmentalized that easy shopping is assured.

solved yeast, beaten egg, apricots, nuts, ¼ cup syrup from apricots, and flour and mix thoroughly. Lift to board and knead about 5 minutes. Return to bowl, cover and set in warm place to rise. When double in bulk, about 1½ hours, punch down and let rise again 30 minutes. Form into a loaf and let rise until double in size, about 40 minutes. Bake in moderate (350°F.) oven 1 hour.

Paint Center Offers Ideas To Housewife

There is one thing which many men who think they are handy with a paint brush have discovered. That is their wife is equally as handy most of the time and in many instances is more careful and more proficient when it comes to interior decoration than the stalwart male.

So it is no wonder that women have taken to the paint brush, especially when paint firms like the Paint Service Center at 517 Main St., in Stroudsburg, has gone all-out to make it easy for Mrs. Housewife to do it herself.

You know, too, that many times Mrs. Housewife has, in desperation, been compelled to try something like painting simply because she has not been able to get Friend Husband started.

Painting today is no problem what with many colors, the easy way which paint blends in as it is applied, and the modern spray guns and good brushes which are available for such home work.

Many of these things will be exhibited at the Daily Record's Free Cooking School for the Paint Service Center is going to be a part of that school this year with exhibits of paints and wall papers and folks are going to get a keen insight about how these things can

New Gadgets Furnished By J. J. Newberry

There are so many new gadgets to help the housewife with her cooking these days, that most women welcome an opportunity to go into the kitchen and get the meals.

And most of these gadgets can be found at J. J. Newberry Co., Main St., in Stroudsburg.

With the shortages in certain metals coming up, Newberry's has anticipated the needs of the women in this community and the store is stocked with kitchen utensils of all types and kinds for your selection.

And, as for these things, you are going to see and hear about them at The Daily Record's Free Cooking School at the Sherman Theatre this week.

Harry Phillips, manager of Newberry's big store here, has gone all-out to provide merchandise during the four cooking school periods which will give the women of this community hundreds of ideas about cook ware which can be purchased at this most popular store.

Come to the cooking school and see these things then go to Newberry's and note how economically they have them priced to fit in with your household budget.

Imagination, a keen sense of news in decorating ideas . . . those are the ingredients for rejuvenating tired rooms, says the preamble in a nice colorful booklet which is available for the asking at the Paint Service center.

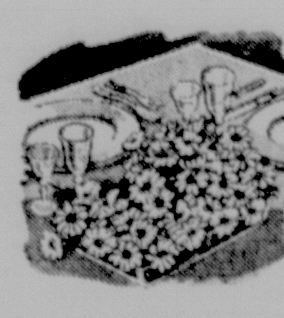

When the school is over Wednesday, go across the street from the theatre and ask for one. You'll be delighted with the ideas contained therein.

Young Women Will Ride To Work In Ford

Miss Grace Shankweiler and Miss Katherine Guildin, home economics experts from the home economics department of the Pennsylvania Power Light Co., will "ride in style" to and from the Daily Record Cooking School at each of its four sessions starting Wednesday at the Sherman Theatre.

Through cooperation with Jess Haynes, proprietor of Haynes Garage, Ford dealers for this area, a late model de-luxe Ford with all its trimmings, will be as the disposal of these two young ladies.

Ford will be the featured automobile at The Daily Record's Free Cooking School this year. The dealer, Haynes Garage, is located on North Ninth street at the intersection of Scott Street.

Here is a card the roadability of which is unsurpassed—a large car in the low price range which everyone can afford.

The new Ford will be on display each morning of the cooking school in front of the Sherman Theatre. At other times it can be seen in the showrooms of Haynes Garage.

Jack's Market Provides Meat For Classes

Fresh meats used for demonstration purposes at The Daily Record series of cooking schools, will come from Jack's Market, 246 N. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg. The Daily Record Series of cooking schools will open with the initial session on Wednesday morning, April 20, in the Sherman Theatre in Stroudsburg.

All meats used in the four schools will come from this quality market, according to arrangements completed recently.

Miss Grace Shankweiler and Miss Katherine Guildin, home economists who will conduct The Daily Record Cooking School, have selected meats from this market after having made a thorough inspection of the market to determine the fact that here is quality in every respect.

Many meat dishes which will be "down-to-earth" in cost yet entirely palatable and tasty for the whole family, will be demonstrated through the several cooking school sessions. The home economists are going to specialize through the school on recipes which, in the main, will be within reach of the average family budget. Meat is definitely a part of a dinner meal. It will be the purpose to show conclusively that meat can be used economically and tastily in many types of preparation.

Jack's Market has been sending out quality meats to discriminating housewives in this area for many, many years. You'll like Jack's meats. If you have never happened into Jack's Market, go now.

Add mushroom soup and cook over low heat, stirring often, until piping hot—about 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Name Hotpoint Is Synonymous With Quality

The old expression "Man's work is from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done" has been tossed aside by the makers of famous Hotpoint appliances, according to J. L. Williams, 422 Main Street, Stroudsburg. As the largest outlet for Hotpoint products in this area, Mr. Williams has seen hundreds and hundreds of homes enjoying the conveniences and comforts afforded by these famous appliances.

The name Hotpoint has been synonymous with quality and dependability for years and their diversification of products has disproved conclusively the old adage quoted above.

In electric ranges, Hotpoint buyers can choose from eight different models which permit even small apartment owners to thrill to the experience of electric cooking. Hotpoint offers the magic of pushbutton cooking, where by simply pressing a few buttons, housewives can go shopping, play bridge or just visit, then come home to a completely cooked meal. It is the marvel of the electric age.

The refrigerator line is very extensive ranging from apartment size 6 cu. ft. units to the deluxe 10 cu. ft. refrigerator-freezer combination. The many features embodied in their design have placed Hotpoint refrigerators at the head of the field.

Time was when mother spent approximately one month out of the year doing dishes. Today, Hotpoint's amazing electric dishwasher saves harried housewives many, many hours per week extra hours for sewing, shopping or with the family.

Other Hotpoint appliances that have created so much favorable comment among housewives are the automatic washer, home freezer, hot water heater, and clothes dryer. Each of the appliances has made life easier and more comfortable for housewives the nation over.

Hotpoint appliances will be featured by J. L. Williams in the Daily Record's series of free cooking schools, the first of which opens Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Sherman Theatre.

Active Life At 92

Burbank, Calif. (AP)—In 10 years Mrs. Mary E. Alston has braided 110 rugs, made 40 silk patch quilts and crocheted 60 sets of baby clothes. Not bad for a great-grandmother of 92 who manages to get a lot of housework done besides.

The mother of 13, Mrs. Alston has 31 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren. Her philosophy: lead an active life but "never overwork."

Cooking School To Stress Foot Comfort Which Clinic Shoes From George's Provide

When Miss Grace Shankweiler and Katherine Guldin appear at The Daily Record Cooking School for its first session on Wednesday morning, April 25, at the Sherman Theatre, one of the items they will stress will be the well being of the feminine feet.

Housework becomes a drudgery instead of a pleasure when a woman is not comfortably shod. There is an ever-increasing demand for clinic shoes for women who "work walking." It is mistaken economy to wear out high-heeled dress shoes for housework, besides the misery caused by the weight of the body being shifted improperly and unevenly.

George's, Smart Footwear, 538 Main St., feature Clinic Shoes which are worn regularly by nurses, waitresses, beauticians, housewives and domestic help. Clinic shoes are light and airy, yet sturdy of sole. They are constructed of glovek, buckskin, or brogandi, with either leather or duxflex soles. Due to the large demand in this area for Clinic shoes, Georges stock them in 4 to 10, in widths AAA to C and in regulation heel heights, wedge or flat heel.

Fish Chantilly

Ingredients: ¾ cup thinly-sliced onion, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup mashed potatoes, 1 pound cooked flaked fish (2 cups lightly packed), ¼ cup finely chopped drained pimiento, ½ cup fish stock or water, 1 cup water, ½ cup nonfat dry milk, ¼ cup flour, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, 4 eggs (separated), ½ pound processed American cheese food (finely shredded).

Method: Sauté onion slices in butter or margarine over low heat until tender and lightly browned, about 10 minutes. Mix with mashed potatoes, flaked fish and pimiento in large mixing bowl. Pour fish stock and the 1 cup water in top of double boiler. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk, flour, salt, pepper and mustard over the top of water. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Add egg yolks and beat until blended. Cook over simmering water, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Beat sauce into potato and fish mixture. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold lightly into fish and potato mixture. Turn into 2-quart casserole. Sprinkle cheese over top. Set casserole in baking pan and put on rack in oven. Fill pan with hot water to depth of 1 inch. Bake in moderate (350°F.) oven until puffed and browned, about 45 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Each Usher Will Wear Penney Dress

When the doors at the Daily Record's cooking school open Wednesday morning the Record's housewife guests will be greeted by four young ladies from the J. C. Penney store, smartly attired in the company's latest house dress creations. These young ladies, who will act as ushers, will be sent there by Lawrence Ross, manager of the store, who has shown great enthusiasm for the Daily Record's promotions.

Included in the showing will be sunbacks, button fronts all the way down, wraparounds, in all the more modern and popular fabrics and patterns. The store advises that these dresses are available in the store in sizes from 9 to 54.

At The Daily Record Cooking School the J. S. Penney Co. will award a number of gifts at each school to fortunate women in the audience.

Be at The Daily Record's cooking school and see for yourself how attractive you can look in a Penney house dress.

Presidential Proof

Johnstown, Pa. (AP)—Little eight-year-old Carol Union knows now there is power in faith. But she didn't know it when her father told her nothing was impossible if she had faith in God and herself.

For Carol challenged her father then with: "I bet you couldn't get a letter from the President of the United States." Her father accepted the challenge, and three weeks later Carol received a neatly written card which read: "Best Wishes to Carol Union." It was signed Harry S. Truman.

"THE CAPTAIN'S COLLECTION" DINETTE GROUP

In Beautiful Solid Rock Maple

The No. 105 collection of solid maple dining pieces appears so virile that we have just named the whole series for the Captain, though it was his strong comfortable chair that was the original inspiration. A differently proportioned but equally spacious table has been added for the less virile admirers of Early American solid maple in Old World hand-done finish. Another chair is also made for choice or pleasant combining, and of course, the large buffet with its matching hutch cupboard, and the china cabinet complete any of the varied dining groups. We are sure that the recreation area and the living room, the library and even the nursery will hold some of the collection . . . each piece is so useful in so many ways!

Monroe County Co-Op Dairy Chooses Daily Record School To Display Milk Products

There is hardly a meal today which does not depend, in some measure on milk or its derivatives.

That is why milk is so essential to the conduct of a cooking school, and it is also why The Daily Record's cooking school has been selected by the Monroe County Co-Op Dairy of Brodheadsville, to show the women of this community why this big co-op's milk and dairy products should be a part of every home's daily diet.

The Monroe County Co-Op Dairy's business has expanded to the extent where the firm has been compelled to add extensively to its plant during the past winter. New and modern equipment has been added to assure the dairy's patrons of the cleanest and purest of milk and dairy products.

"The reasons for insisting upon Monroe Co-op milk and milk products are quite evident," a spokesman for the dairy said today. "There can be no compromise with quality where the things we eat, the things we give our children to eat, are concerned. The owners of the Monroe Co-op Dairy have gone all the way to provide, not just good quality, but high quality. They are our own people and neighbors, staunch contributors to community welfare, and worthy of our support."

The technical control and supervision of dairy production has become an important factor today and modern science has placed in the hands of the operators many technical tools and methods by means of which both the sanitary quality and nutritional values may be checked.

When you buy and use Monroe County Co-Op Dairy Milk and milk products you are constantly assured of the best.
